

By 2014 you may have no say in your children's education

We owe it to our children to find out the truth of Common Core.

Here are some facts about Common Core:

- Common Core ignores your child's uniqueness. The entire focus is on commonality.
- Common Core strips away local control of education, parents have no say in standards or curriculum.
- Common Core is much more than standards.
- Common Core puts your child in a national database for cradle to grave tracking.
- Common Core will prepare your child for technical school, or non-selective community college.
- Common Core math standards are lower than our old standards, Common Core math ends with Algebra 2.
- Common Core English standards reduce great literature in high school to 30% of reading, while 70% is for "informational texts".
- Common Core doubles the time consumed by high stakes testing. More teaching to the test.
- Common Core was not "state led" or "internationally benchmarked".
- The players behind Common Core are large corporations aiming to massively grow profits by getting all students on the exact same new learning schedule. You could rename this Corporate Core.
- Common Core is a hugely expensive unfunded federal mandate. Idaho cannot even afford the cost of testing results this year.
